

Anne Breiling

Education

- M.A. Theology, special emphasis classical languages – Ave Maria University – 2008
  - Thesis: Capital Punishment and the Demands of Human Dignity: Recovering the Doctrines of the Imago Dei and Two Cities
- B.A. Liberal Arts, Great Books Program – Thomas Aquinas College – 2002
  - Thesis: Ignorance is Bliss: A Defense of Dionysius' Claim that the Most Divine Knowledge of God is that which is Known by Unknowing.

Professional

- Latin Teacher, Live Oak Academy – August 2010 – Present
- Assistant Manager, Book Buyer, Our Lady of Peace Shrine Gift Shop, Santa Clara CA – September 2009 – Present
- Reader/Audio Editor, Catholic Audio Publishing – June 2009 – Present
- Developmental Project Founder, Three Days Café & Books – www.threedayscafe.com
- Managing Editor, Declaration Statesmanship: A Course in American Government & Govern Thyself: On the Genius of the Declaration and the Art of Being Free, January 2006 – August 2008
- Research Assistant, Guadalupe Associates – September 2007 – June 2008
- Personal Assistant/Deputy Chief of Staff (Presidential, Senate & Congressional campaigns & civic education non-profit) – June 1997 – June 2006

Ministries/Activities

- Volunteer Catechist, Our Lady of Peace Church – January 2010 – Present
- Eucharistic minister to the sick and homebound – December 2009 – Present
- Choir/Schola member, Thomas Aquinas College (1998), Ave Maria University (2007), Mission San Juan Bautista (2009), Shrine of St. Joseph (2010)
- Benedictine Oblate, Camaldolese Hermitage Big Sur, CA – December 2007
- Volunteer Sacristan, St. Joseph's Church, Capitola, CA (intermittently 2003 - 2006)