

2011-2012 – Second Semester Enrichment Course Descriptions

Art Explorers (Grades 4-6)

Second Semester, Thursdays, January 26 – May 24
except for Academy Holidays

Time: 3:15– 4:30 PM

Location: LOA Campus, Fellowship Hall, First Baptist Church,
400 Llewellyn Ave., Campbell

Tuition: $275 / one semester; $35 materials fee

Instructor: Ruth Korch (<http://www.ruthkorch.com/>)

This course offers students, grades 4-6, a wide range of artistic experiences not only for directed skill development, but also for the pure joy of exploring their own God given talents and how to best express them. Together we will explore different activities in the disciplines of drawing, painting, and mixed media. As we set off on our weekly adventures, we talk often about God as The Source of all creativity, and students will be nurtured in the observation and appreciation of His art in the world around us.

Art and Design (Grades 6-12)

Second Semester, Wednesdays, January 25 – May 16
except for Academy Holidays

Time: 3:15 – 4:30 PM

Location: LOA Campus, Room 203 at Calvary Chapel,
1175 Hillsdale Avenue, San Jose

Tuition: $295 / one semester; $35 materials fee

Instructor: Ruth Korch (<http://www.ruthkorch.com/>)

This enrichment class for grades 6 and up will investigate some of the applications of art in the world around us. Some of the areas we will explore will be cartooning, hand-drawn lettering (great for posters and signs) and illustration. By virtue of the subject matter, we'll be using a variety of media, including pencil, pen and ink, and painting (watercolor, acrylics).
